JUDO

ABU DHABI GRAND SLAM 2015

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

The World Judo Tour will remain in Abu Dhabi for the second Grand Slam in the United Arab Emirates from 30 October – 1 November which comes days after the 2015 Junior World Championships in the capital city.

The fourth Grand Slam of the year follows editions in Baku (AZE), Tyumen (RUS) and Paris (FRA). Judo's finest young prospects are competing before the Grand Slam in the same location and many may remain in Abu Dhabi to witness or indeed compete on the Grand Slam stage.

In 2014, the first edition of the Abu Dhabi Grand Slam was a success, and the judo family are excited to return here in 2015 with the goal of winning Rio 2016 Olympic qualification points.

We have seen the rise of UAE on the World Judo Tour to become a prominent country capable on winning medals on any stage in judo and the next step of their journey will be to flourish at the Olympic Games in 2016.

The Abu Dhabi Grand Slam 2015 will be a great test for judoka and the organisers and I wish both success and thank them for their efforts in supporting the IJF during this demanding year of events.

I also wish good luck to all the officials and staff and I am confident that together we can stage a very memorable competition in the UAE.

H.E. Mohammed
Bin Tha'aloob
Al Dirai
President of UAE
Judo Federation

2015 is an important year for UAE Wrestling, Judo and Kickboxing Federation, as this year will see the organization of two major Judo events for the first time in Abu Dhabi. Besides the Grand Slam, now in its second year (following several Grand Prix's before that), this year will also see the coming together of several athletes and delegates for the Juniors World Championship also to be held around the same time.

The partnership between IJF and UAEWJKF has been growing from strength to strength each year and we are proud of the high level of organization that has been displayed over the previous years.

We look forward to welcoming back our Judo Friends, Delegates and Officials, and of course the athletes, who really make these events what it is today.

UAEWJKF is truly awaiting two spectacular events this year.
